HAVE YOU SEEN THIS PERSON?

WEB DEVELOPER
DISAPPEARED 20 YEARS AGO

We are 3H Communications, an advertising, marketing, branding, communications and new media agency. Our team is driven and passionate about all that we do. We take pride in what we produce and ask that you have the same outlook.

Question; Why do you want to work with us.

Answer: You are a:

- Web Developer with Mad skills.
- Play great in the sandbox
- Quick on your feet
- Meticulous
- Responsible,
- Reliable,
- A thinker
- Well organized with solid production capabilities.
- Experienced in building database driven websites
- Person who is great to bring home to an unsuspecting family

If you dream, chew on, and fantasize about the following, you're a person that we need to have a powwow with:

- JQuery and modern standards based HTML5/CSS3
- You get stoked about all the latest APIs Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, geo, custom oData
- Programming in multiple languages (the ones we have all come to know and love)
- Creating, Testing and Debugging sites and web applications for cross-browser and multiple device compatibility
- Enforcing a quality assurance process for the code, adhering to our high quality standards and processes
- Content management platforms (and building CMS solutions that content editors love)
- You're at your best working with a team who are experienced, are uber smart, super capable, and like to "get it done!"

Disclaimer: If you are not all that, but can learn fast and feel that you're up to the task, don't be shy, we would love to hear from you.

Only candidates that are fit to be interviewed will be contacted.
